Paul Mitchell The School North Haven

MAKE UP WORK

All practical, theory tests and lab work should be made up following an absence. The student is responsible for contacting his/her Learning Leader to schedule a time to make up any work.

Any work or tests not made up will be given a score of zero (0).* The school reserves the right to prevent future professionals from participating in extra-curricular events if they are not up to date with academic, practical or financial requirement.